Choosing a Creed

(By Ella Wheeler Wilcox.)
Copyright, 1910, by the New York Evening Journal Publishing Company.

Oh, I cannot sit debating
On the issues of a creed,
With the mighty work that's waiting
And the world's tremendous need.
And the cold and costly steeple
Brings no pennies from my purse,
While the people, people, people
Groan beneath oppression's curse.

While the tenements are reeking
With the striving, toiling poor,
Do not send your churchmen seeking
Help for heathens to my door.
Let them go where sin abounds,
Or where seething sweatshops stand;
Let them see the slaughter houses
Of the children of our land.

WEDDINGS.

H. M. Sammons, of Cananea, Mexico, and Miss Mogie Etheridge, of Palestine, Texas, were married Saturday evening at the home of C. A. King, on the county road, Rev. H. M. Law, of the Highland Park Methodist Episcopal church, officiating.

The groom is chief electrician of the Cananea Consolidated Copper company at Cananea, and formerly resided in El Paso.

Carl Miller and Miss Edith Allen were quietly married Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Christian church. Rev. P. J. Rice performed the ceremony. The newly wedded couple will make their home in this city.

Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the parsonage of the First Christian church, Guy Moore and Miss Maud McGhee were married in the presence of a few friends. Rev. P. J. Rice officiated at the ceremony. The bride arrived in the city Saturday morning from Pittsburg, and was met here by the groom. They will make their home in Lordsburg, N. M., where the groom is engaged in the mining business.

A simple, yet most attractive wedding, was that of Miss Alice Newcomb and Kent Grant Bush, which was solemnized this afternoon at 6 o'clock at St. Clement's Episcopal church.

The marriage came as a surprise to the friends of the young couple, who were not expecting the wedding before spring.

The church was effectively decorated for the occasion with a profusion of cut flowers and ferns. The groom with his best man, Dr. George Brunner, entered the church from the vestry room, meeting his bride at the altar, who was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Grant Austin Bush. Rev. Henry Easter officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was handsomely gowned in a tailored traveling suit of light tan broadcloth. A picture hat, in harmonizing tones, completed this very becoming costume. Her flowers were bride's roses and ferns in shower effect. The bride, who is a charming young woman, spent last winter in this city, visiting her sister, Mrs. George Brunner.

She is a daughter of the late Judge S. B. Newcomb, of New Mexico, who was widely known throughout the southwest, having been the first judge of the El Paso district years ago. Miss Newcomb received her education at the university of Toronto, Toronto, Canada. The groom is assistant general manager of the Ancho Brick and Tile company, at Ancho, New Mexico. He is the son of Grant Austin Bush, who is general manager of the Rock Island Cement and Plaster company and also of the Ancho Brick and Tile company, at Ancho.

The young couple left immediately after the ceremony for Ancho, where they will reside for the present and perhaps permanently.

Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, at the church of the Immaculate Conception, Miss Lydia Delworth and Hugo S. Mueller were united in marriage by Rev. Father Roy. Only relatives and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Albert T. Mueller, brother of the groom, assisted as best man, and Miss Lily Meyer attended the bride as maid of honor. The bride was charmingly gowned in a cloth costume, combining the three tones of the pearly shade, with trimmings in the brass color. The hat was a picture model in the purple tones and trimmed with plumes.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. D. D. Harkness, on California street. The home was decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers, which combined to develop a white and green color scheme.

An orchestra was in attendance and refreshments of cake and punch were served. A souvenir arranged for each guest was a small piece of wedding cake tied with white ribbon and containing an inscription appropriate to the guest for whom it was intended.

The bride, who is a young woman of pleasing personality, has been in El Paso the past two years, and has been connected with the El Paso Mining Journal in the capacity of secretary. The groom is manager of the Rio Grande Abstract company and is well known in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Mueller will go at once to keeping house in their recently purchased new home at 1009 California street.

Married, at the Trinity Methodist church parsonage, by Rev. C. S. Wright, Miss Marcia B. Crockett and Marvin Faust. Miss Crockett is a graduate nurse from one of El Paso's local hospitals, and Mr. Faust is an engineer on the G. H. & S. A.

CHURCH ORGANIZATIONS.
The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon at the rooms of the Y. W. C. A. at 2 o'clock. The object of this meeting is to instruct the delegates who will attend the W. C. T. U. convention to be held at Waco, September 25 to 29. Other business of importance will be brought up for adjustment.

The young men of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church are arranging to give an entertainment Friday evening at the home of Rev. C. L. Overstreet, complimentary to the young women of the church.

The form of entertainment planned by the hosts for the occasion will be a complete surprise to the guests, who are anticipating the affair with much interest.

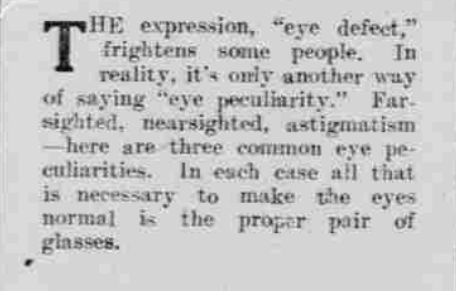

At the conclusion of the business meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Christian church, on Monday evening, the party went in a body up on the mesa, where a delightful picnic supper was served. The moonlight, as well as the abundant spread, was thoroughly enjoyed by the 20 young people who made up the party.

A charming social affair of the week was the reception on Monday afternoon at which Mrs. C. B. Patterson entertained in honor of the Home Mission society of the Trinity M. E. church and their friends. Among the enjoyments of the afternoon was a guessing game, "Woodland lovers," in which Mrs. H. L. Daniel was the fortunate prize winner.

A delightful musical program, rendered at intervals during the afternoon, included numbers by Mrs. J. G. Kenan, Miss Amy Schutz, Mrs. Addie Owen, Mrs. William Owens, Mrs. S. J. Daugherty. While refreshments were being served, Miss Helen Cooper sang a number of familiar songs in charming and finished style.

The Patterson home was beautifully decorated with quantities of cut flowers and potted plants, placed through the apartment. Those enjoying Mrs. Patterson's hospitality were, guest list included:

Mrs. Lillian Ansley, B. C. Anthony, L. Ayers, R. E. Bryan, T. H. Binkley, R. A. Brown, H. Blum, J. M. Crawford, M. F. Collier, R. L. Davis, O. A. Danielson, W. L. Grouch, John H. Harper, R. A. Johnson, Duncan Johnson, J. G. Kenan, Chas. Kinne, C. H. Lee, A. E. McClane, J. P. McFadyen, R. C. Matthews, Taft DePew, W. D. King, Geo. B. Oliver, W. T. Owen, Adine Owen, Frank Powers, C. T. Race, H. L. Spence, J. E. Schuller, L. C. Shepard, C. E. Sawyer, W. J. Spahr, Wm. Sacks, J. Y. Wadlington, C. S. Wright, R. B. Stevens, C. H. Hutton, W. P. Hart, C. W. Harrell, E. W. Bryan, Chapman, Geo. Brown, Gillette, G. A. Cook, C. B. Henderson, G. W. Clark, Martha Clark, G. W. Dennis, C. H. Holloway, F. W. Bauer, Wm. Caples, J. Magoffin, Daugherty, W. E. Wilson, Wip Robin-

THE expression, "eye defect," frightens some people. In reality, it's only another way of saying "eye peculiarity." Far-sighted, near-sighted, astigmatism—these are three common eye peculiarities. In each case all that is necessary to make the eyes normal is the proper pair of glasses.

THERE is one thing to be remembered. Where an eye peculiarity does exist, glasses should be fitted immediately, not only because the glasses will enable you to see much more clearly but to prevent any strain.

Featuring $5.00 & $10.00 Millinery

For the balance of this week, we make a special feature of hats at the above two prices. In selecting our fall stock we paid particular attention to "popular-priced" millinery. That we were successful in our selections is shown by the enormous number of hats we have already sold at these prices. If you have previously failed to obtain a stylish and serviceable hat at either of the above prices, you will have that trouble no longer. We do not hesitate to say that the hat we sell for $5.00 would be marked $7.50 at other millinery stores, and our $10.00 hat at $12.50 and even more.

Children's Millinery

Our Children's Department is being received most favorably by the mothers of the little tots. This department with us is a most important one. You can come here and buy millinery for the little folks that has all the "style" of that shown for the older ones.

son, H. L. Edwards, D. Hurley, Thew, Misses Helen Cooper, Bryan, Emma Hoffman, Florence Wiley, Eva Grouch, Nettie Maloy, Bura Heinrichs, Moss, Gibbs, Schultz, Alice Carre, May, Carrie and Lizzie Stewart, of Olathe, Kansas.

The members of the First Baptist church will give a reception on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the parlors of the church to the El Paso school board and public school teachers.

PARTIES.
Gladys Leona Wright recently entertained at a delightful party in celebration of the twelfth anniversary of her birth. The merry party of little folks were entertained at the Happy Hour theater, and upon returning home were treated to a feast of fruit, ice cream, cake and lemonade.

The little hostess received a large number of beautiful presents from her guests, who were: Walter Vance, Willie Fitchet, Eddie B. Bauman, Fred Kinchenoe, Ruth C. Wright, Louise Amador, Gertrude Strand, Lillie Fitchet, Jessie Barrach, Luella Stansell, Irene, Hazel Kinney, Fay Farnsworth, May Belle Beathea, Ethel Bullard, Paralee Bullard, Jewel Paschal, Marguerite Walsh, Anna Standt and Helen Darrach.

Miss Myra Prater delightfully entertained the teachers of the Beall school Saturday evening at her home on Mesa avenue. Miss Eula Cobb, who spent the past year abroad, told of European travels in a most interesting way, adding much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Little Gertrude Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Miller, was the charming hostess at an enjoyable party given Saturday afternoon in honor of the ninth anniversary of her birth. Merry games were played on the lawn and a peanut and candy hunt afforded much amusement, after which refreshments were served in the dining room, which was decorated for the occasion.

The little hostess was the recipient of a number of pretty gifts from her many friends.

Those enjoying the afternoon were: Elizabeth Woodson, Esther Rice, Lola Bess Smith, Nellie Smith, Rubie Fuller, Esther Spahr and Ruth Spahr.

Mrs. P. Murray assisted in entertaining the children.

The week end dance at the Country club on Saturday evening was one of the delightful social events of the week and was enjoyed by a large number of the younger social set.

Miss Helen Merrill recently entertained at a delightful party in honor of the birthday anniversary of her sister, Miss Blanche Merrill. The affair was a complete surprise to that young hostess, who was persuaded to attend the morning picture show, and upon returning home found her friends awaiting her.

Games and music made the afternoon most enjoyable, and loss and cake were served.

Those present were the Misses Blanche Merrill, Bessie Troutman, Kate Cranston, Lizzie McCormick, Hazel Taft, Ellie Burns, Angerstein, Lucille and Edith Maloney, Mary Tilton, Mesdames W. T. Bohman, Harry Powers and George F. Tilton; Messrs. George Freeman, Harry Kiebler, George Steele and Harry Powers.

The formal opening of the handsome new Toltex club promises to be one of the most brilliant events of the season. The date has not been definitely decided, but will be early in October.

The clerks in the railroad offices of the city were the guests of W. Howard Buck, manager of the freight department of the Pomeroy Transfer company, on a trolley ride down the valley Saturday night. The Yuletide Inn being the objective point. Refreshments were served at the Inn. Those who composed the party were: J. D. Baker, W. M. Friedman, T. E. Burdy, A. O. Reading, W. H. Curtis, H. B. Russ, M. B. Webb, L. O. Cowan, G. B. Ogden, R. L. Lee, W. H. Cole, Robert Manning, H. Swanson and W. Howard Buck.
